IV - Selection methods and criteria:

IV.1. Selection Methods: CV Assessment (50%) + Public Hearing (50%) + Approval on Absolute Merit (qualification criterion) followed by the candidates' final ranking.

IV.1.1 If the Selection Committee exceptionally decides, in the first meeting, not to apply the Public Hearing, the CV Assessment shall have a weight of 100% of the score, followed by the Approval on Absolute Merit (qualification criterion) and the candidates' final ranking.

IV.2 Selection criteria for both CV Assessment and Public Hearing are: scientific performance and pedagogical skills of the candidates, as well as other activities deemed relevant with regard to the mission of a global university, in accordance with the assessment of the parameters mentioned below.

IV.2.1 Scientific performance of the candidate in the research area(s) for which the tender is open, with a weight of 70%, based on the following parameters:

IV.2.1.1 Scientific production: the relevance of the results presented by the candidates with particular focus on the works/papers selected as the most representative of their contribution to the development of the scientific field for which the tender is open;

IV.2.1.2 National and international impact and recognition of scientific production: recognition by the scientific community regarding the results presented in the scientific field for which the tender is open;

IV.2.1.3 Future scientific prospects: the ability of the candidates to show that, in the future, they can have a very relevant scientific production in the University of Coimbra, namely based on the submitted career development plans;

IV.2.1.4 Coordination and participation in scientific projects: previous experience of candidates and their potential for beneficially and successfully coordinating and participating in nationally and internationally funded projects in the scientific field for which the tender is open;

IV.2.1.5 Active participation in the community within and outside the university: active participation in the community, namely through organizational and management duties in scientific activities, transfer of knowledge to society and participation in assessment tasks and, in general, all activities pursued by the candidates that demonstrate the skills to develop, with great quality, the activities of a global, extremely productive and scientifically recognized university.
IV.2.2 Pedagogical skills of the candidate, with a weight of 30%, will be assessed based on the following parameters:

IV.2.2.1. Teaching activity: if existing, previous teaching activity, as well as evidence of the skills to successfully carry out teaching. This will be based on the available pedagogical assessment tools, namely pedagogical surveys, the results of which candidates are required to include in their CV, and other relevant indicators, such as awards and other prizes;

IV.2.2.2. Supervision and guidance activities: activities of supervision, advising and guidance of students performed by the candidate;

IV.2.2.3. Pedagogical materials produced: the quality and the quantity of pedagogical materials produced by the candidate will be assessed, as well as the relevance and impact of pedagogical publications, awards and other prizes;

IV.2.2.4. Pedagogical projects: coordination and active participation in new pedagogical projects (e.g., definition of new course syllabi, participation in the creation of new courses or study programmes) or in the reform and improvement of existing projects, as well as the implementation of projects with an impact on the teaching/learning process.

IV.2.2.5. Active participation in the community within and outside the university: active participation in the community, namely through organizational and management duties in pedagogical and knowledge transfer activities and, in general, all activities pursued by the candidates that demonstrate the skills to perform, with great quality, the activities of a global, extremely productive and pedagogically effective university.

IV.2.3. Development, by the candidate, of other activities relevant for the mission of a global university may justifiably enhance the assessment of the parameters mentioned above under IV.2.1 and IV.2.2., whenever the scope of such activities is considered to influence the performance of the candidate in relation to those parameters and the results of these activities are considered to possess the required quality to justify this enhancement.

IV.3 Each member of the Selection Committee shall assess candidates with regard to both selection methods, CV Assessment and Public Hearing, scoring each of the selection criteria (scientific performance, pedagogical skills). The global score given by each member of the Selection Committee regarding each selection method is based on the weighted average of the scores given on each selection criterion, with the weights mentioned in IV.2.1 and IV.2.2. The final score given by each member of the Selection Committee to each candidate is based on the simple average of the global score obtained with regard to each assessment method - CV
Assessment and Public Hearing.

Candidates are then subject to approval on Absolute Merit, followed by their ranking as mentioned below in section VI. If the Public Hearing does not take place, only the result of the CV Assessment method will be considered, followed by the approval on Absolute Merit and the candidates’ ranking as indicated below in section VI.

IV.4. All candidates complying with the application requirements are subject to the CV Assessment, which shall be conducted under the criteria and evaluation parameters above mentioned (IV.2). However, only the first 5 candidates ranked according to section VI will be deemed approved and subsequently called for the Public Hearing, if it takes place.

IV.5 Candidates are approved on Absolute Merit when the Selection Committee deems their overall CV appropriate for the available job, namely revealing scientific performance and pedagogical skills suitable for the position and the scientific field in question. This judgement is based on the selection criteria and evaluation parameters mentioned under IV.2, non-quantitatively weighted. Hired candidates that do not master Portuguese will be required to learn the language up to CEFR level C1, which allows them to teach in Portuguese, in order to maintain their contract after the probationary period.

V – Selection Process

V.1. Preliminary meeting:

In the first meeting, which is always preliminary, the Selection Committee decides on the admission of applications and whether or not the Public Hearing should justifiably take place, pursuant to section 27(2) of RRCPDU [Regulation on the Recruitment and Hiring of Teaching Staff of the University of Coimbra]. In the event of deciding that the Public Hearing should take place, the Selection Committee shall proceed to the candidates’ CV Assessment and ranking according to the following terms. In case of non-fulfilment or partial fulfilment of any of the requirements defined in III, the Selection Committee decides whether this insufficiency prevents accepting the application, or if, having no relevant impact on the evaluation process, the application may nevertheless be accepted.

V.1.1 CV Assessment will be based on the selection criteria and evaluation parameters mentioned above (IV.2). At this stage the merit of the candidates will only be assessed based on their experience in the scientific field for which the tender is open, according to the selection criteria and evaluation parameters described in this public notice. The candidates’ background in other areas shall not therefore be taken into consideration by the Selection Committee. The ranking of the candidates shall be based on the methods described below in section VI, up to the number of approved candidates according to the terms above herein IV.4. All candidates falling outside this number shall be deemed excluded.

V.1.2 Candidates both excluded and admitted to the Public Hearing shall be notified by Public Notice, under the terms mentioned below in section VII.

V.2 Assessment meeting and final ranking of the candidates

V.2.1 In the second meeting, the Selection Committee proceeds to apply the selection criteria, followed by the candidates’ ranking and the drafting of the final deliberation.

If the Public Hearing is to take place, the Selection Committee shall conduct it by assessing the candidates based on the selection criteria and evaluation parameters mentioned above herein IV.2, with regard to their merit only and relevant research background in the scientific field for which the tender is open. The Public Hearing of each candidate shall have the maximum duration of one hour. However, the Chair of the Selection Committee may decide to extend it further for a period of 30 minutes. The Public Hearing is conducted by the Chair of the Selection Committee, without prejudice to other members of the Selection Committee also interacting with the candidate upon decision of the Chair. This hearing shall be held in Portuguese, unless the candidate or any members of the Selection Committee are not proficient in this language. In this case, it may be conducted in English, upon decision of the Chair. Failing to attend the Public Hearing shall result in the exclusion of the procedure. Similarly, candidates failing to attend a duly scheduled conference call shall also be deemed excluded.

If the Selection Committee decides not to hold the Public Hearing, it shall proceed to assess the candidates’ CV, based on the selection criteria and evaluation parameters mentioned above herein IV.2. At this stage, the merit of the candidates will only be assessed based on their experience in the scientific field for which the tender is open, according to the selection criteria and evaluation parameters described in this public notice. The candidates’ background in other areas shall therefore be taken into consideration by the Selection Committee. The ranking of the candidates shall be based on the methods described below in section VI.

V.2.2 In view of the final score given by each member of the Selection Committee, under the terms described in IV.3, the Committee then proceeds to assess the absolute merit of the candidates admitted to this stage of the procedure.

V.2.3 Candidates are approved on absolute merit when the majority of the selection members present at the meeting justifiably deems them to have achieved the level defined in IV.5, each member of the Selection Committee having to respect their previous proposed rankings.
V.2.4 The Selection Committee finally ranks the candidates approved on absolute merit, based on the methodology described under VI, proceeding to the drafting of the final deliberation.

V.2.5 The position will not be filled if the Selection Committee decides that none of the candidates fulfils the requirements established in this Public Notice.

V.2.6 On the date established by the tender timetable and according to VII herein, all the candidates shall be notified regarding the provisional deliberations of the Selection Committee, containing the proposed ranking of the selected applicants as well as the list of those excluded. Candidates can, if they so wish, appeal the decision of the Committee, in due respect for their right to a fair hearing, pursuant to section 121 of the Código do Procedimento Administrativo [CPA - Code of Administrative Proceedings]. The period to submit an appeal begins on the day the public notice with the Selection Committee’s deliberation is published, pursuant to section 113(8) of the CPA.

V.3 If any of the candidates exercises their right to be heard, the Selection Committee shall hold a third meeting, in order to analyze the request, and the candidates will be notified of its deliberations, under the terms of section VII herein.

V.3.1 If the Selection Committee finds such allegations well founded, it shall proceed according to its deliberations, thereby notifying the candidates under the terms of VII.3 herein.

V.3.2 If the Selection Committee finds such allegations unfounded, following the candidates’ notification under the terms of V.3 herein, the procedure shall then be submitted to the Rector’s approval.

V.4. All candidates will be notified regarding the approval decision under the terms of section VII herein. The administrative records of the tender may be consulted by the candidates, upon previous appointment, at the address mentioned under III.3 herein, during the established working hours (more information at http://www.uc.pt/drh/contactos).

VI – Ranking and voting methods:

VI.1. After the debate on the candidates towards establishing a final deliberation about the ranking, each member of the Selection Committee will present a written document, which will be attached to the meeting minutes, with their individual ranking proposal, based on the selection criteria and evaluation parameters stated in this Public Notice. Throughout the various vote rounds, each member of the Selection Committee must respect their proposed rankings.
VI.2 The first vote round is intended to select the candidate to be ranked in the first place. If a candidate obtains more than half of the votes, he/she shall be placed in the first position. If this is not the case, candidates with no votes shall be eliminated, as well as the candidate with the least votes, provided the latter obtained at least one vote. In the event of more than one candidate being placed in the last position with only one vote, there shall be a vote to decide whom to eliminate. In this vote round, committee members shall vote on the candidate who had the lowest score according to their individual ranking, and the candidate who obtains the most votes shall be eliminated. If a tie persists between two or more candidates, the Selection Committee Chair shall decide which candidate should be eliminated.

After this process, the Selection Committee shall vote on the ranking of the remaining candidates. This process is repeated until one of the candidates obtains more than half of the votes for the first place.

VI.3 The candidate placed in the first position shall then be excluded from the next vote round, which shall decide the second place. This process shall be consecutively repeated until all approved candidates are ranked.

VI.4 During the voting of the Selection Committee abstentions are not allowed.
